The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Monday, September 1st, 1873.

In another column appears a communication from Smithville, giving an account of a Republican meeting held there last week, to which we invite attention. The meeting was of unusual importance as on that occasion two prominent gentlemen who have heretofore acted with the Democratic party, publicly withdrew from it and acknowledged themselves as members of our party. It is useless for us to speak of Col. Allen, who showed his valor on thirty-two battle fields fighting for the confederacy. He is altogether too well known in this vicincy, and like the brave soldier, as soon as he had made up his mind as to the right of his opinions, he has openly avowed them. We are aware of scores of men, who vote with our party, but are too fearful of that great bug-bear—public opinion—to avow their principles. Col. Allen's position to-day is worth more than all the votes of the others, for it carries its truth upon the face and will influence many of his old companions in arms.

Mr. Sutton is a prominent lawyer of Elizabeth, and his eloquence and popularity in Bladen county will be of great service to the party in the next campaign. We welcome these gentlemen to our ranks. May there be many more such.

"H" and the Wilmington Post;

Under the above head, the Journal of Sunday contains a reply to our remarks in Friday's issue about the Willie Carter murderers, signed J. C. HIDEN.—Now that we know the writer, we will reply to his communication briefly, and endeavor to define our position more distinctly. The communication contains six heads, of which four require brief mention, and the first one is in reply to the following: "Now, we will ask Mr. 'H' if he read the evidence, and if so, if he can understand how a boy of 14 years of age can give four different versions of the same tragedy, every one plausible, and every one almost entirely different." Mr. Hiden replies to this by saying, "Yes, we understand it readily. David lied. * * * * We think, however, that his lying shows art and not artlessness."—Now this does not answer the question. Every one, including the villain David himself, admits that he lied. We said we were unable to understand how a boy could give these different versions. It must be distinctly borne in mind that our article, which called forth the Biblical Recorder letter, was a pen picture of the prisoners appearance, and not editorial remarks upon the evidence, and we said he "acts and speaks with the artlessness of innocent childhood." We did not say that he was artless or innocent, or that his evidence showed artlessness, but we gave his appearance, and most of the spectators will bear us out in our description.

Again Mr. Hiden says:

All that the Post says about the "Democratic rule," that if a prisoner "is a negro he is guilty;" and all that is said about the "Democratic papers," the "Southern democracy," &c., is purely irrelevant; we wish we could think that it is "artless." The Biblical Recorder is not a Democratic paper, and "H" is not a partizan. The question before us was not a political one, and no effort which the Post can make will ever drag or decoy "H" into a discussion of the issues of party politics.

Here again Mr. Hiden fails to see the point of our remarks. The article does not confound the Recorder with partizan papers, nor even intimates that he is the writer of a Democratic article. After speaking of our being constantly misrepresented by Democratic papers, we gave two distinct positions as follows, properly paragraphed. The first one says: "The cry of the Southern democracy now is, that they are the especial lovers of the negro race, and that Northern men are here only to deceive them." The next paragraph says: "Here is a writer for a religious paper, who intimates that we are carefully concealing the faults and crimes of this unfortunate race, because they are black. Neither position is correct." We have italicised this time to show the distinctions. How can Mr. Hiden suppose we were confounding the Recorder with a political paper, when we distinctly state it to be religious. And bear in mind, we did not charge the Recorder or its correspondent with claiming to be the "especial lovers of the negro race," but the Southern Democracy. The Recorder and its correspondent are mentioned in the second position, and we think it charges by intimation, as we state above. The POST has no disposition to "drag or decoy" Mr. Hiden or any other clergyman into a political discussion, for it has too great a respect for their calling, and it dislikes to see political demonstrations made by ministers of any religious denomination. Still the POST would not be happy to be considered artless. It would be a poor paper if it was.

After a review of our pen picture in the Recorder, "H" wonders "what sort of a negro will do for a murderer." We considered that remark and its accompanying sentences an intimation that the POST was concealing the faults and crimes of the negro race. This Mr. Hiden denies, and that settles that question.—The closing paragraph is as follows:

The Post is hardly accurate in calling "H's" article anonymous. Is the Post's article anonymous? Of course not, for the Post has published the fact that it is edited by Major Mann. Well, the Recorder has published the fact that its correspondent "H." is the Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Wilmington; and we have entirely satisfactory reasons for believing that the Post had been otherwise and reliably informed that "H." was J. C. HIDEN.

To this remarkable statement we have this to say: The POST employs several writers, and because J. C. MANN's name appears at the head of the paper as its editor, and by common custom is held responsible for editorial articles appearing therein, it is by no means evidence that he writes all the articles published. So it would not be safe to announce that J. C. MANN wrote any certain article, though he might be indicted or sued for publishing it. We do not exchange with the Biblical Recorder and did not know that it had ever announced its Wilmington correspondent "H." as the pastor of the First Baptist Church. Nor do we believe that fact to be generally known in this city. But had we personally known who the correspondent was, the signature "H." would have been anonymous to our readers and we would have had no right to mention Mr. Hiden's name in connection with the article. That position is generally understood we believe among the newspaper Fraternity. We will state, however, for Mr. Hiden's benefit, that we did not know that he was the author of the article, and we had not been reliably informed upon that point.

For the Post.

REPUBLICAN MEETING IN BRUNSWICK.

Speeches by Thomas H. Sutton, Esq., of Bladen, and Col. Chas D. Allen, of Brunswick—Red Hot Balls falling thick in the ranks of the shattered and demoralized Democracy—Their best men leaving them.

EDITOR POST: On Tuesday, the 26th instant, during the term of the Superior Court, a large crowd of the people of Brunswick being in Smithville, a Republican meeting was held in the Court House—the building being well filled with persous from all parts of the county. Capt. E. M. Rosafy being called on, addressed the meeting in a few well timed remarks, eliciting much applause, at the conclusion of which he moved that John L. Wescott, Esq., be called to the chair. This motion being carried unanimously, Mr. Wescott, on taking the chair, stated the object of the meeting to be to give an expression of the views of the Republican people upon matters of public interest, to exercise the constitutional right of assembling together to consult for their welfare, and to hear from prominent gentlemen who had been invited to address the meeting. Lewis A. Galloway was, on motion, appointed Secretary.

After the organization, a call was made for Mr. Thomas H. Sutton, of Bladen, who was at Smithville in attendance on the Superior Court. Mr. Sutton responded in a strong speech, which held the house for some time. He said that for several years he had said but little on politics; that in 1868 he acted with the Conservative party, and believed it to be right, but that he had long since discovered that its leaders were bound by no principle save the yearning for place and power; that they had conceded and adopted every radical measure which in the beginning they had taught him to oppose and hate, and that finally they had committed the grand act of political stultification and treachery by nominating and supporting for the Presidency the great chief of Radicalism and President of the Union League. For these men to talk about consistency or principle is the most stupendous impudence and effrontery. He was a faithful and earnest member of that party for a while, and, being a Democrat, he had been, like nearly all other young men of that party, a ku klux. Yes, Mr. President, they got me into the klan, but when I found out what they were, I quit them and denounced them as a set of assassins, cutthroats, and thieves. No such party ought to be countenanced by a people who want quiet, and peace, and harmony. The young men of the country would submit to these leaders no longer. The time for propping up this party by persecution and proscription had passed. Men will be free; and these self-constituted leaders of politics and society, claiming to have all the wealth and all the intelligence, will soon find that they have nothing but the scorn and contempt of a betrayed and indignant people. Mr. Sutton continued for some time, discussing various themes. He made a marked impression. His delivery is excellent, his manner attractive, and there is about his style an appearance of honest conviction, determination and pluck, which carries his utterances straight to the popular heart.

He was followed by Colonel D. C. Allen, a gentleman too well known to the people of Brunswick to need any introduction. Col. Allen, after announcing his purpose henceforth to act with the Republican party, proceeded to give his reasons for this determination in a speech of much eloquence and power. He said he was tired of acting with a party which put him on one platform this year and the next year required him to take back all he had said, and advocate the very measures which he had been opposing and denouncing. He had eaten enough dirt in this conservative party, and he now wanted it understood that he was done with it. They had year by year adopted the measures of the Republican party, at the same time asking the people to rebuke and put down the party which had built their own platform. If they were honest in their professions, then there is but one party in the country, and that is the Republican party. He had not yet learned to profess one thing and be another. As they had led him on to adopt Republican principles and had carried him step by step to the Republican platform, he proposed now to stand on it and stay there. He yielded to no man in affection for the South and her people. He had rendered services in the war which he thought might possibly be compared with the records of some of the leaders of this conservative party. He stood by the cause and the flag until the last gun was fired. He fought his way to promotion, and whatever of honor or credit he may have won was achieved on thirty-two battle fields. He was not ashamed of this, neither was he ashamed now to stand by the side of the most gallant of his comrades in the ranks of the Republican party. As he was true to the South in the hour of danger and adversity, so now he would stand by his government and his country.

The speeches were frequently applauded and great enthusiasm prevailed. Cheers were given for Col. Allen and Mr. Sutton and the importance of the positions taken by these gentlemen fully appreciated.

Brunswick county will give a large Republican majority next year.

Yours, D.

Raleigh seems to be in earnest about having cotton and woolen factories, and the city authorities are considering a proposition to exempt them for taxation for ten years.

The Newbern Republic-Courier pitches into a St. Louis Advertising Agency and seems to be quite mad too, and all because the Agency fellows wants Nason to do $15 worth of printing send them $1 50 worth of newspapers for $2 10 net cash in advance.

The Raleigh people are on the qui vive in anticipation of the coming of that most charming actress and great favorite, Katie Putman. Wilmington is full of happy anticipations too at seeing little Katie, and will give her a rousing reception when she comes.

The affairs of the old Girard estate, at Philadelphia, are so prosperous that it is proposed to increase the facilities of Girard College, in order to take a much larger number of pupils.

The Leavenworth man who wants to bet his wife can walk five hundred miles in three weeks has been exposed. It was but a shallow device through which to get three weeks peace and quietness.

CONVICTED OF LARCENY.—Sheriff Taylor, of Brunswick county arrived in this city from Smithville this morning, having in charge two white men who were convicted of larceny, named respectfully Jno. B. S. Phillips and E. H. Delany. Phillips was convicted at the Fall term of 1872. Judgment was suspended on the payment of costs and his promise to behave himself, but was arrested a month ago on four peace warrants. He will be carried to the Penitentiary to remain for five years.—Delany was convicted of larceny at the last term of the Superior Court, and will be turned over to the tender mercies of Supt. Van Amringe for the term of four months.

WILMINGTON CITY DIRCETORY.—Messrs. S. G. Hall and E. S. Warrock are making arrangements for publishing a full and complete Directory of the City. Instead of the "History of Wilmington from its commencement," it is the intention of the publishers to present a comprehensive and concise article on the commerce and business interests of the City; also, a description of the Churches, Schools, Public Buildings Hotels, Railroads and Steamboat lines, &c. &c.

This Directory will be issued by the Fair in November, will be printed in this city, and no collections asked until the work is completed and delivered.

There has not been a time when a correct Directory of the City was more needed than at present, and we have no doubt but that our business men will promptly embrace the opportunity of liberally patronizing a work which will tend so much to their interest. †

— Hot.

— Gold in New York 115⅝.

— Churches well filled yesterday.

— September mullets are now the correct thing.

— Dogs are as plentiful this Fall as they were last Summer.

— The Summer is passed and if the Fall is as delightful, we will rejoice.

— Bills are presented to-day and all those who are short of funds had better be home sick or out of town.

— A young gentleman playing with a large dog the other day, was amusing himself by throwing a stick in the water and seeing the dog get it; when a bright thought struck him. Calling the dog to him, he held the stick as far as he could reach over the water, and told the dog to get it. The dog obeyed, but the young man had forgotten to look after himself and he followed the dog into the river. Both swam ashore and it may interest our readers to know that the dog brought the stick with him, Jut Jeemes didn't want to play any more.

MEXICAN WAR.—The Sentinel published some of the survivors of the Mexican war, in this State, but omitted the following members of the 12th U. S. Infantry: First Lieutenants Edward Cantwell, John F. Hoke, and S. L. Fremont, and Second Lieut. J. F. Waddell. These "still live."

STEAMSHIP RALEIGH.—The new steamship Raleigh, which is intended to ply between this port and Baltimore, steamed gracefully up to her wharf at twenty minutes past two o'clock this afternoon, with her new bunting flying. Three guns were fired, in honor of her arrival, from the wharf of her energetic agent, Capt. A. D. Cazaux.

Saturday Night Sketches.

It rained during the day severely, but as usual, the clouds cleared away, the moon came out bright, and ere the hands of our silent town clock had pointed to the hour of eight, the city trafic was well nigh done. The scenes before our eyes were of old time familiarity and mostly depicted heretofore.—A body of old salts wandered about among the strange sights, commenting in their language, familiar enough to them, but all Greek to us, upon the many oddities in their way. Next year, way over in the "fatherland" with their little tangled haired urchins on their knees, to-night's scenes will be told among the wonders seen by those who "go down to the sea in ships."

One poor unfortunate man, lost to shame, an outcast now, ragged and despised, lay upon the walk on one of the side streets—drunk. No one to care for him, strangers slumbering over him as he lay half concealed in the deep shadows of the trees, it only remained for policemen to come and bear him to the guard house. And the bright lights shown from gilded chandeliers in many a saloon, and elegant glasses and vases could be seen through the windows where young men first learn to love the dangerous poison, as he is hustled along to his dark cell where he will molest no one, and where he will open his eyes from his drunken stupor. We have often thought of the horror of that moment to one unused to such experiences. Awakening in a prison.—Grated bars, and stone walls about him, alone in the darkness. Here is a theme for the temperance people, to paint in glowing words, pointing out the dangers and certain fate of those who fall by the wine cup. What cares the crowd for this poor outcast? A few idlers accompany him to the guardhouse but Saturday night passes on the same, and the poor wretch is forgotten.

Melons, though the season is rapidly passing away, are still plentiful, and many a little social party is seated on the curbstone engaged in enjoying their delicious flavor. All cannot wait for the Sunday evening's treat, and so one melon goes now, but one is sure to be saved. The price has diminished, and hundreds of them, too large to be carried otherwise than on the shoulders of strong men, are seen, the flashing lights reflected on their dark green sides, above the crowd going, out into the darkness, and by nine o'clock the carts are gone. Sad was the man who had deferred his purchases, for his children will cry melon when there is no melon, and Sunday will be passed in solitude and sadness!

The last man was shaved, the weary barbers put away their implements and closed their doors, taking the precaution to provide for the reception of midnight assassins. the many lights went out and Market street and its thousands of melon rinds and cast away fruits was left to the army of cattle and swine which roam on such occasions unmolested and free.

Rockingham mothers find time to nurse their babies for mumps and dyptheria.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— In the trial of the Tichborne claimants, Friday, a large number of witnesses from Mapping testified that the claimant was not Arthur Orton. Much excitement was created in court by the testimony of two witnesses who swore that they had seen Orton and Castro together in Australia, and they identified the claimant as the person who went under the name of Castro.

— A Herald special, dated Tashkeand August 26, says: Private letters report that an insurrection broke out in Khiva and Khokand during the absence of Gen. Kauffman. Gen. Vereffkin quelled the rebellion and destroyed Khiva.—Khokand is quiet. Russian exactions have been levied on sixty leaders of the late movement. It is reported Gakoob Bey is dead.

— The recent fights between the Pawnees and Siouxs and between Indians and the United States troops have developed the fact that the Indians are splendidly armed with the most approved pattern of fireams, having abundance of ammunition, and it is the intention of the government to institute a rigid investigation as to the source from whence the Indians receive their supplies. The recent massacre of Pawnees by the Sioux in the Republican river country is a clear violation of the Sherman treaty of 1868, in which it is stipulated that for the privilege of hunting outside of their reservation the Sioux and Pawnees were to preserve the peace not only towards each other, but towards the government. The violation of this treaty provision by the Sioux will result in the withdrawal by the government of the permission of these Indians to hunt outside the prescribed limits of their respective reservations, and both the Sioux and Pawnees will hereafter be compelled to confine themselves to their reservations.

— The Louisville Courier-Journal of Wednesday last publishes another letter from its correspondent in the kuklux infected portion of Kentucky. The letter is mainly devoted to arguing that, as all the ordinary processes of law are powerless to stop the work of the kuklux gang, the Governor of the State should adopt some extraordinary measures for their suppression. "That Gov. Leslie," says the writer, "must suffer seriously in reputation unless he shall speedily hit upon some expedient for suppressing the Owen county kuklux is fully indicated by the present temper of the best citizens of the disaffected section. He must wipe them out, law or no law, or bear the blame, justly or unjustly. If United States soldiers had been selected for the work, even as late as six months ago, there can be no doubt that a 'false and unhealthy sympathy would have been gotten up for the criminals.' But I notice a signal change in the disposition of the people who are being plundered and driven from home, even within the past fortnight. Those who tacitly demurred to such a remedy then, openly call for it now. Every other remedy known to the law has, in fact, been exhausted already. I am fully convinced the people of Owen and Henry will scruple to employ no means which may save the wreck of their fortunes. They insist upon one single condition, viz, that it be effective."

STATE ITEMS.

Lucy Stainback, charged with the murder of her husband, is to be put on trial for that crime at Warren county Court to-day.

It is understood that among the many other attractions to be at the State Fair at Raleigh this fall, will be the great pedestrian, Weston.

The Piedmont Press says: McAdden obtained judgment against the Western North Carolina Railroad at the Special Term of the Rowan court last week for two hundred and sixty thousand dollars. The suit was originated in Catawba county and moved to Rowan upon affidavit of McAdden, who alleged he could not get justice before a Catawba jury on account of various reports in circulation as to his intention to tear up the arm that connects Newton with the main trunk. The railroad company (if any body can denominate that being) was represented by Hon. Burton Craige and J. M. McCorkle. We understand the rulings of the court on the questions of law raised in the case, excluded the facts upon which the defendants relied for a verdict, from the jury. Judge Alberton ruled against the company on the main question of law raised by the counsel, viz: That the railroad company was not authorized by their charter, to execute promisory notes under seal, and that they could not do so without an express provision to that effect. This was admitted to be good law, but did not apply to innocent holders without notice. The judgment is a small matter, when the financial condition of the road is well understood.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, September 1:

The post mortem examination of the body of an English emigrant named Edwards, who was reported to have died from Asiatic cholera, showed the man to have died of typhoid fever.

The principal operator in the New York Central bond forgeries is one Charles J. Williamson, who is believed to be identical with the notorious Ross & Wright. He appears to have been dealing through various brokers to a very great extent, principally in New York Central 6's of 1887; N. Y. Central 6's of 1883, and Buffalo, N. Y., and Erie first mortgage bonds.

Williamson is an outside man, and whether all these bonds just mentioned are forgeries or not, or merely corners by which he was enabled to issue forged bonds, it is impossible to tell. The detectives think it advisable for any persons who have bought any of the classes of bonds just mentioned, since the date of last interest payment, to have them examined at the several offices of the Companies, to have their genuiness attested.

It is reported on Wall street that a certain bank has been victimized to the extent of half million dollars with these forged bonds, and it is further reported that the arrest of several prominent operators in Wall street may be shortly looked for with reference to this worthless paper.

Since the arrest of Brown a large quantity of the bogus bonds have been discovered, as follows: Found on person of prisoner, $30,000; found with one firm on Broadway, $30,000; with another firm on Broadway $32,000, making in all $73,000.

It was rumored last night that other stocks had been counterfeited, and that business will be partially suspended in Wall street to-morrow till the truth is known.

Williamson has the alias of H. H. Williams and is said to have been discharged years ago from the position of bookkeeper to Brooks Bros., for peculation and forgery. Every effort is being made to secure his arrest.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, September 1.

The inspectors of steamboats have made public the official report of the Wawasset disaster. They recommend a prosecution of the Potomac Ferry Company, and the captain and mate, and to suspend the engineer. The charges against the Ferry Company are for carrying more passengers than are allowed, and the employment of officers who did not bear certificates; also charges against the captain and mate for accepting places without proper documents. The worst of discipline is generally charged, and undue anxiety on the part of the captain to save the boat instead of the passengers. The Secretary has referred the report to the Solicitor General for his action, with a view to the prosecution of the alleged culprits.

TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY,

It is possitively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

The "St. Louis & Southeastern"

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES MCCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

PROSPECTUS.

THE EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN,

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The POST is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the up to the time of going to press,

LATEST NEWS,

TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the POST is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,
AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TIMES

Will contain Selected Editorials from the Daily Times; General News, Domestic and Foreign; The Proceedings of Congress and the State Legislatures; Full and Interesting Correspondence; Book Reviews; The Choicest Literary Selections; while its most prominent feature will be a COMPLETE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, with original articles from practical farmers; full reports of the American Institute Farmers' Club; complete weekly market reports; financial, domestic produce, live stock, dry goods and general.

AS A FAMILY PAPER,

The TIMES will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL,

The TIMES will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The TIMES stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the TIMES. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES

Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly TIMES: One copy, one year. $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.

Subscripttons to either of our editions received for a less length of time than one year at yearly rate.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post-office Money Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter. All Post-masters are obliged to register letters when requested to do so, and the system is an absolute protection against losses by mail. Address

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:

C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly, Creswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly,
S. McGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work were paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate.

WM. E. SINN,
Front Street Theatre.

BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873.

CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.

Yours, truly,
JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.

Yours, Respectfully,
JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheefully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.

Very Respectfully,
EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St.
House, Sign and Frescoe Painters.

PLEASANTVILLE, HARTFORD CO., MD.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.

Very Respetfully,
R. DICKEY, M. D.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
